Lunar New Year Raffle

On February 22, 2008, F.S. Key students, teachers, families, and community members gathered for the 4th annual Lunar New Year Raffle. Students and teachers got into the spirit by dressing in traditional lunar new year attire or wearing red, the color for luck in many Asian cultures. The event featured stunning performances by our Lion Dance and Ribbon Dance Troupes, and students in the after school Mandarin course sang the folk song “Mò Li Huā” (“Jasmine Flowers”).

Ninety-eight prizes were raffled off. Prizes included hotel stays at the Omni, Hilton, and Ritz-Carlton, box seats to the ballgame, jazz festival and opera tickets, as well as hand-made crafts by students and teachers, such as custom scarves and one-of-a-kind art. This year’s raffle raised $10,509 which will support our classrooms, enrichment programs, field trips, and activities. Great job everyone!
